Order On Board

23/10/2017

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners be granted six months' time to vacate the subject premises and they would also remove the unauthorised construction, as alleged by the Municipal Corporation. Therefore, six months' time be granted.
2. I have heard learned counsel for the parties including the intervener.
3. In the considered opinion of this Court, six months' time would be sufficient to vacate the premises as well as to remove the unauthorised construction as alleged by the Municipal Corporation. Accordingly, six months' time up to 23-4-2018 is granted to the petitioners to vacate the premises as well as to remove the alleged construction. The subject premises shall be vacated on or before 23-4-2018 and till then no coercive steps shall be taken by the Corporation. The petitioners will file affidavit / undertaking before the Municipal Corporation within two weeks from today to this effect.
4. The writ petition stands finally disposed of with the aforesaid observation. No order as to costs.
