CORAM : K.L.WADANE, J.

DATED : 13th September, 2017

O R D E R :

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. This is an application filed by the appellant for condonation of delay of 773 days caused in filing Civil Revision Application.

3. According to the applicants learned counsel representing claimants in Reference Court was not attending the Court and it is his negligence due to which he has not communicated the claimants about the progress of the matter. He has not intimated the claimants about the decision. When the claimants came to know about the decision of the Reference Court, they applied for certified copy and in that process delay has been caused.

4. The reasons stated in the application appear to be reasonable. The delay has been properly explained. However, same can be condoned in view of the observations in the case of Ramanlal Deochand Shah vs State of Maharashtra and another, reported in AIR 2013 SC 3452.

5. Hence, Civil Application is allowed.

6. Delay is condoned. However, the applicants shall not claim interest/monetary benefit for the period for which delay is sought to be condoned.

7. Civil Application is disposed of.
