CORAM: RAVINDRA V. GHUGE, J.

DATE :- 11th May, 2017

Per Court :

1 In the special sitting in vacation for taking up old pending matters, this petition was called out on 09.05.2017. None appeared for the parties. Even today, none appears for them.

2 However, I find that this petition can be disposed of since the Petitioner has challenged the interlocutory order dated 25.04.2001 passed by the Industrial Court, Aurangabad below Application Exhibit U/2 in Complaint (ULP) No.5/2001.

3 By order dated 10.12.2001 passed by this Court, this petition was admitted and interim relief was not granted to the Petitioner.

4 Considering the above, this Writ Petition is disposed of as the Petitioner is without any interim relief for the last 16 years against the interlocutory order passed by the Industrial Court. Rule is discharged.

5 Needless to state, the Industrial Court, Aurangabad shall decide Complaint (ULP) No.5/2001, if not already decided, on or before 28.02.2018. The observations of the Industrial Court in the interlocutory order dated 25.04.2001 are of prima facie nature and hence, the Industrial Court would decide the pending complaint, if not already decided, on its own merits.
