Versus

The State of Maharashtra. .. Respondent.

Shri. N.S. Ghanekar, Advocate, for applicant.

Coram: T.V. NALAWADE, J.

Date: 29 March 2017

ORDER:

1) The application is filed for relief of temporary bail to enable the applicant to appear for examination of "M.B.A. F.Y. Sem II" which will commence on 30 march 2017. Both the sides are heard.

2) The learned counsel for the applicant submitted that to other accused, Harishkumar aged about 19 years this Court has granted similar bail and so temporary bail can be granted to the present applicant. The previous application filed for regular bail by the applicant was withdrawn when this Court had expressed that the Court was not inclined to grant the relief. Considering the age of the applicant which is 23 years, and considering the fact that there is allegation that he has committed offences punishable under sections 302, 307, etc. of the Indian Penal Code this Court holds that it will not be safe and proper to grant him temporary bail though such relief to the other accused, aged 19 years, was granted and afterward he has surrendered.

3) If the applicant really wants to appear for the examination some arrangement can be made. So order of following nature is made:

4) The applicant is to be taken to the examination center with police escort and for the conveyance and escort charges are to be deposited in advance in jail by the applicant. On every date of examination the applicant is to be taken for appearing in the examination center and then he is to be taken back to the hall. The applicant is to produce copy of Hall Ticket and deposit the charges in advance with jail authority. Only after that this order is to be implemented. Unnecessary restrictions are not to be put for taking the applicant to appear for the examination. Parties to act on the authenticated copy of the order. The application is disposed of in those terms.
