ORAL ORDER :

1. We do not think that the authorities under the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949, can be directed to resolve the disputed issue and, particularly between two private parties who have been involved in litigation in civil court. Even the declaration and order of the civil Court will be binding on parties.

2. In such circumstances, we do not think that the writ petition can be entertained. Keeping open all contentions and for raising at appropriate stage, we dismiss the Writ Petition.
