CORAM : R.M. BORDE AND
A.M. DHAVAL, J J.

DATE : 8th June 2017

PER COURT

Heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned Addl.
Public Prosecutor for State.

2. The petitioner was released on emergency parole leave on account of death of his wife for seven days between 29th May 2017 and 3rd June 2017. The petitioner tendered an application seeking extension of parole leave, however, same has been turned down for the reason that the authority is empowered to grant parole leave only for a period of seven days.

3. In the facts and circumstances of this case, since the rule does not permit extension of parole leave, the request of the petitioner made in the instant petition does not deserve consideration. However, the petitioner will be at liberty to apply for grant of regular parole leave and if such application is preferred by the petitioner, the authority may consider the same in accordance with the rules.

4. With above observations, Criminal Writ Petition stands disposed of.

5. In view of disposal of Criminal Writ Petition, pending Criminal Application No.2768 of 2017 stands disposed of.
