The State of Maharashtra ... Respondent

CORAM : K.L.WADANE, J.
DATED : 17th JULY, 2017

Heard Mr. Shelke, learned counsel appearing for the applicants and Mr. Joshi, learned A.P.P. for the respondent.

3. Mr. Shelke, learned counsel appearing for the applicant submits that name of present applicant no.1 is referred in the first information report as grand father-in-law and an omnibus statement is made in the first information report that the applicant and other relatives were illtreating the deceased on account of illegal demand.

4. Learned A.P.P. points out the statements of number of witnesses, from which it appears that husband of deceased namely Suresh has committed brutal murder of his wife and this has been noticed by number of witnesses.

5. The main allegation of demanding huge amount of Rs. 5 Lakhs is against the husband and there is ample evidence against the husband that he has committed murder of his wife. In view of the above circumstances and as there is no specific allegation against the present applicants and the fact that present applicant no.1 is aged about 70 years and applicant no.2 is lady, I am of the opinion that the applicants are entitled for bail.

6. Hence, the following order.

(i) Criminal Application is allowed.

(ii) The applicants shall be released on bail in connection with Crime No. 60 of 2017, registered with Sangamner Taluka police station, District Ahmednagar, on his furnishing P.R. bond of Rs. 10,000/- with one solvent surety in the like amount.

7. Criminal Application is disposed of.
