Date:- 27th April, 2017

P.C.

Heard Mr. S. Redkar, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners.

2. We have perused the records. The order being implemented in pursuance to the disposal of the Writ Petition filed by the petitioners before this Court. It is stated that thereafter the application for regularisation is pending before the Authority. Merely filing an application for regularisation would not entitle the petitioner to get a relief in a petition under Article 226 of Constitution of India. The regularisation application shall have to be examined on its own merits by the concerned authorities in accordance with law. We are as such not inclined to interfere in our extra ordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of Constitution of India. In the facts and circumstances of the case, the petition stands accordingly rejected.
