

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Omprakash Teerathram Sharma. .. Appellant
Vs
The State of Maharashtra & anr. .. Respondents

None for Respondent No.2.

Coram : N.M.Jamdar, J.
Date : 11 August 2017.

None for the Appellant.

2. Perusal of the farad sheet shows that on the earlier occasions also none had appeared for the Appellant.

3. The Appeal relates to a complaint of the year 1996. According to the Appellant Complainant, the Respondent No.2-accused took Rs.5000/- from some candidates, totalling to Rs.1,25,000/- and assured them jobs in the armed forces, however, did not provide any employment. The learned Magistrate found that the Complainant himself was acting as a middleman and the Complainant could not stated to have been cheated. The candidates who were supposed to have been cheated did not file this complaint against the Respondent No.2-accused. The learned Magistrate, considering the evidence on record, acquitted the Respondent-accused. The Appeal is pending since the year 2000. On various occasions Appellant has not remained present. The Appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.

(N.M.Jamdar, J.)