IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

ANTICIPATORY BAIL APPLICATION NO. 77 OF 2017

Balu Maruti Pawar ... Applicant
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra ... Respondent

Mr. Vivek V. Salunkhe, Advocate for the applicant.
Mrs. Rutuja Ambekar, APP for the State.

CORAM: MRS.MRIDULA BHATKAR, J.
DATE: 17th January, 2017.

P.C.:

In view of the order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Pune on 12th January, 2017 by which the learned Sessions Judge has rejected to grant ad-interim relief. However, he has issued notice and made it returnable on 20th January, 2017. Thus, it appears that the Anticipatory Bail Application will be decided on that day. Hence, this Anticipatory Bail Application cannot be entertained.

2. Anticipatory Bail Application is dismissed.
