CORAM : A.A. SAYED, J.

DATE : 4 APRIL 2017

P.C.:

1 The Contempt Petition alleges breach of the order dated 17 July 2015. After hearing the learned Counsel for the parties and on going through the Affidavit-in-Reply filed on behalf of the Respondents, I find that there is substantial compliance by the Respondents. It is also pointed out by the learned Counsel for the Respondents that the Respondent No. 2 had himself appeared before the Joint Commissioner of Sales Tax.

2 In these circumstances, the Contempt Petition is disposed of.

3 In the event, the Petitioners have any further grievance, it would open for them to take up the matter with the concerned Joint Commissioner of Sales Tax in accordance with law.
