

Vidya Amin

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

ANTICIPATORY BAIL APPLICATION No. 200 OF 2017

Surekha Machindra Jadhav & Anr. ... Applicants
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra ... Respondent

Mr. Nitesh J. Mohite h/f. Mr. Jaydeep Mane, Advocate for the Applicant
Mr. Y.M. Nakhwa, APP, for Respondent – State

CORAM: MRS.MRIDULA BHATKAR, J.
DATE: 2nd February, 2017.

P.C.:

It is pointed out by the learned APP that the order of rejecting the anticipatory bail passed in the offence pertaining to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act is challenged. As per the amended Section 14A(3), the Appeal lies against the order passed by the Special Court including the bail order. Hence, the learned counsel is allowed to withdraw this Anticipatory Bail Application.

2. Anticipatory Bail Application is dismissed as withdrawn.

(MRIDULA BHATKAR, J.)