Rangopant Vasudeo Huddar & Ors. Petitioners versus
State of Maharashtra & Anr. ... Respondents

.....

- Mr.Shardul Singh i/b. Sushma Singh, Advocate for the Petitioners.
- Mr.K.V. Saste, APP for the State/Respondent.
- Mr.Prashant Dingrani, Advocate for the Respondent No.2.

CORAM : RANJIT MORE & SARANG V. KOTWAL, JJ.
DATE : 24th JULY, 2017.

P.C. :

1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, respondent No.2 and learned APP.
2. The petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for quashing and setting aside FIR bearing C.R.No.251/16, registered with M.R.A. Marg Police Station, Mumbai. The said FIR is registered against the petitioner at the instance of respondent No.2 for the offences punishable u/s 141, 143, 147, 149, 324 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Pending investigation, the parties to the petition have settled their dispute amicably and in pursuance of an understanding arrived at between them, have approached this Court for quashing the FIR by consent. The respondent No.2 has filed an affidavit dated 24/07/2017. In paragraph No.5, he has stated that he has no objection for quashing and setting aside the subject FIR.

4. The respondent No.2 is personally present before the Court. On being questioned, he specifically stated that he has gone through the affidavit and has fully understood the contents thereof and has no objection, if the subject FIR is quashed and set aside. He also stated that he is giving no objection for quashing the subject FIR out of free will and without there being any pressure or coercion.

5. It can, thus, be seen that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties. From the perusal of complaint, it transpires that the allegations are totally personal in nature. In these circumstances, and especially, in view of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Narinder Singh vs. State of Punjab (2014 AIR SCW 2065), we find that no purpose would be served by keeping the FIR pending except burdening the Criminal Courts which are already overburdened. However, at the same time, costs need to be saddled on the parties for using the police and judicial mechanism for settling their personal disputes.

6. Accordingly, the petition is allowed in terms of prayer clause (a) subject to payment of costs of Rs.10,000/- by the petitioners to the “Maharashtra State Legal Aid Services Authority”. The petitioners shall pay the said costs and produce the receipt thereof on the file of this Court within a period of two weeks from today, failing which, the petition shall stand dismissed automatically, without further reference to the Court.
7. Subject to above, the criminal writ petition stands disposed off.
