IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAYCIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTIONSECOND APPEAL NO.726 OF 1992

Rambhaji Umaji Sandbhor & Ors.

..Appellants.

V/s.

Shankar Maruti Sandbhor & Ors.

..Respondents.

Ms.Anita Agarwal for the Appellants.

None for the Respondents.

Coram : N.M.Jamdar, J.Date : 2 May 2017ORAL ORDER

The dispute is between the brothers. It is informed that the brothers, the initial parties to the proceedings have expired. The learned counsel for the Appellants states that the heirs have not contacted the Advocate for considerable time and according to her instructions, the same is the position with the Respondents.

2. It appears that by the Judgment and Order passed by the District Court, the suit of the Appellants-Plaintiffs has been dismissed. Perhaps because of this reason and passage of time, the parties have lost interest in prosecution of the appeal. The appeal is accordingly dismissed for non prosecution. If the parties are desirous in prosecuting the appeal, they can make an application for restoration of the appeal, but within a reasonable period.
