

Shephali

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 920 OF 2017
IN
FIRST APPEAL NO. 995 OF 2015

Ramesh Sitaram Narvekar	...Appellant
Versus
Pradeep Dalichand Shah & Ors	...Respondents

Mr Balasaheb Deshmukh, for the Appellant.
Mr SS Joshi, for the Respondent No. 3.
Mr SS Kanetkar, for the Respondents Nos. 4 and 5.

CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 28th June 2017

PC:-

1. This Civil Application is filed by Respondent No. 3 saying that the Suit and the First Appeal are both time barred and beyond the period described under Article 54 of the Limitation Act. Now that the Appeal is admitted, the Civil Application is infructuous.

2. The Civil Application is disposed of in these terms. There will be no order as to costs. However, it is clarified that the issue of limitation is specifically kept open to the final hearing of the Appeal.

(G. S. PATEL, J.)