Mr. G.H. Keluskar for the Petitioners in both Petitions.

CORAM : ANOOP V. MOHTA AND

DATE : 31st OCTOBER, 2017.

FINAL ORDER :

1. Learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioners submits that there was no interim relief in Petitioners' favour. Therefore, the challenge to the selection of Gramsevak in view of the pendency of litigation, becomes infructuous.
2. Even otherwise, considering the above circumstances, we are also of the view that nothing would survive in these petitions. The Petitions are accordingly disposed of as infructuous. Rule discharged. No costs.
