

Vipin Mahajan and Ors.	}	Petitioners versus
The Union of India and Ors.	}	Respondents

Mr. Pradeep S. Jetly for the respondents.

DATED :- APRIL 18, 2017

1. After the writ petition was argued for some time and considering the preliminary objection raised to its maintainability by Mr. Jetly, which we found to be valid and sound, we are of the opinion that this writ petition deserves to be dismissed.

2. It additionally deserves to be dismissed because it is brought at the stage of adjudication of the show cause notice dated 31st August, 2016. We have no doubt in our mind that all contentions based on the grounds in this writ petition or otherwise available in law can be raised before the tribunal in appeal and in the event the tribunal, beyond noting them, does not deal with them or rejects them, in further appeal, including to this court, the petitioners can very well contend that such of these grounds, which would go to the root of the adjudication having been rejected, the adjudication is flawed completely. We keep all contentions of both sides open and dismiss the writ petition subject to above.
