1. Not on board. Production of papers is permitted at 3.00 p.m.
2. The Applicant was granted bail by the Sessions Court vide order dated 29th May 2017. The Applicant was released on furnishing one or two sureties to the tune of Rs.50,000/- and PR bond in the like amount. However, since the Applicant could not furnish sureties, he preferred an application before the Sessions Court on 31st May 2017 stating that he may be permitted to provide cash bail in lieu of surety. The Sessions Court by order dated 1st June 2017 permitted the Applicant to be released on furnishing cash security with a direction that surety be furnished on or before 8th June 2017. Since the Applicant could not furnish the surety, he preferred another application for extension of cash security. That application was rejected on 8th June 2017. Hence, the Applicant has preferred present application.

3. Learned advocate for the Applicant submits that the Applicant could not arrange for the surety and is still trying hard to arrange the surety which is in the sum of Rs.50,000/-. The Applicant, therefore, seeks three weeks time to furnish surety and prays that he may be permitted to continue on cash security for the said period.

4. Learned APP opposed the said application. However, she submitted that reasonable time of one week may be granted to the Applicant to arrange the surety.

5. Considering the aforesaid circumstances, the time to furnish surety is extended for a period of two weeks from today and Applicant is permitted to continue on cash security for a period of two weeks from today. The application stands disposed of.

6. Parties and all concerned to act on authenticated copy of this order duly issued by registry of this Court.
