P.C.

1. On 27th September 2017, the learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the matter has been settled between the parties and the consent terms would be filed before the Family Court on 23rd October 2017. The matter was therefore stood over to 01st November 2017.

2. Today, neither the petitioner nor his advocate present. This is presumably because the matter has been indeed settled. Accordingly, this petition is disposed of for non-prosecution and because the same may have been rendered infructuous.
