CORAM : DR. MANJULA CHELLUR, C. J., &
G.S.KULKARNI, J.

DATE : FEBRUARY 27, 2017

P. C.

1. On 7 February 2017 we have directed the Petitioner who is before this Court challenging the acquisition by agreements, contending that such agreements are not favourable to its members who seems to be the members of the Trust, to give details of the Trust and its members. However, till today there is no compliance of our directions with regard to details of the Trust like aims and objects and so also the members of the said Trust. In the absence of such material being placed before us, we are of the opinion that the so called petitioner-Trust has no locus standi to challenge, since it is not in a position to establish its obligation towards the members as contended in the petition.

2. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.

3. So far as individual land losers are concerned, if they have acquired any rights, we make it clear that we are not expressing any opinion on the same.

4. As the Writ Petition itself is disposed of, nothing survives in the pending Civil Application, it is accordingly disposed of.
