On the last occasion, i.e. 12.1.2017, this Court had issued bailable warrant against the applicant as it was revealed that th applicant was availing of two remedies simultaneously.

2. The learned APP submits that the applicant has been taken into custody in another case i.e. Crime No.397 of 2015 registered at Charkop Police Station and, therefore, according to learned APP, the bailable warrant cannot be executed against her at the given address. In the course of hearing, the learned counsel for the applicant submits that in fact, no application was filed for seeking enlargement on bail. The applicant was produced before the Metropolitan Magistrate, 13th Court, Bhoiwada and at that stage, upon noticing that the applicant has been in custody for a long time, she was enlarged on bail by the Metropolitan Magistrate. In fact, it is a matter of record that there are several offences registered against the applicant that she has cheated more than 45 persons and the total amount is more than Rs.2 crore. This Court had observed that the present application was not withdrawn after the applicant was enlarged on bail by the Metropolitan Magistrate and for the first time on 12.1.2017, a prayer was made for seeking enlargement on bail on the ground that the applicant has been enlarged by the Metropolitan Magistrate. The application stands dismissed on merits also.
