

Santosh

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
FIRST APPEAL (ST) NO.20505 OF 2012
WITH
CIVIL APPLICATION NO.2706 OF 2012
AND
CIVIL APPLICATION NO.2707 OF 2012

Bajaj Alliance General Insurance Co Ltd	...Appellant
Versus
Thomas D'Souza	...Respondent

Mr MM Sathey, for the Appellant.
Mr Sameer Mangaonkar, i/b V Mhaispurkar, for the Respondent.

CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 22th June 2017

PC:-

1. The Appeal has been rendered infructuous by passage of time. It is directed against an interim award in respect of a No Fault Liability amount. In the meantime, the claim has proceeded to trial and is at the verge of completion.

2. The Appeal is dismissed as infructuous. It is clarified that this is without any assessment on the merits. The claim will be decided on its own merits leaving all rights and contentions open.

3. In view of disposal of the First Appeal, both Civil Applications are disposed of as infructuous as well.

(G. S. PATEL, J.)