I Sunil K Ahire, President of Mumbai Pradesh Youth Congress having his area office at C/O 601, Sai Charan I-C Sai Wadi Telli Gulli Andheri East Mumbai – 69 states that for about three weeks I had been watching the color channel where I found indecency and vulgarity acted and represented by the participants of the Bigg Boss on the Color Channel which is spreading indecency and vulgarity and also propagating the indecent representation of women. I say that I have been receiving the complaints also from the public at large and workers of our party.

The said vulgarity as shown and exhibited and spread on the channel are vitiating the youth mind. Due to the vulgar and indecent representation, the same is causing harassments in the family members of the party workers and public at large.

In short, the respondent No.3 has alleged indecency and vulgarity by the Color TV Channel, Director of the Colour TV Channel, producers and participants of the Reality Show "Big Boss". The respondent No.3 has alleged of offences punishable under Sections 292 and 294 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and Indecent Representation of Women Act.

4. Perusal of the complaint, makes it abundantly clear that the respondent No.3 has not given the dates on which the reality show “Big Boss” was aired and viewed by him. The respondent No.3 has also not given particulars in respect of the indecency and vulgarity alleged by him. Also the names and particulars of the participants who exhibited vulgarity are not given. The respondent No.3 has also not mentioned the names of the persons from whom he has received the complaints. The respondent No.3 has made ominous/general allegations. On the basis of these allegations, in our considered view, continuation of investigation into such FIR would be futile and also it would be abuse of process of law. In the above circumstances, we allow the petition in terms of prayer clause (a). Consequently, the complaint dated 4th October, 2008 and FIR No.34 of 2008 registered with Andheri Police Station against the petitioners is quashed and set-aside.
