

Atul

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 3289 OF 2012
IN
FIRST APPEAL NO. 1429 OF 2012

Reliance General Insurance Co Ltd	...Appellant
Versus
Prem Fulchand Pawar & Anr	...Respondents

Mr Mehta, i/b KMC Legal, for the Appellant/Applicant.
Mr TJ Mendon, for the Respondent No. 1.

CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 11th July 2017

PC:-

1. Mr Mendon waives service for Respondent No. 1.
2. Since the entire amount has been deposited, there will be a stay on execution.
3. In view of the nature of the dispute and having regard to the nature of the original Award, I will permit a withdrawal of 50% of the amount deposited. The remaining 50% amount is to be invested, if not already done, in a fixed deposit with any nationalized bank.

4. The statutory deposit of Rs. 25,000/- is also to be transferred the MACT Mumbai and will also be invested in a fixed deposit with any nationalized bank.
5. The Civil Application is disposed of in these terms with no order as to costs.

(G. S. PATEL, J)