Coram : N.M.Jamdar, J.
Date : 4 May 2017.

P.C.:

The Appeal was adjourned from time to time to enable the parties to amicably resolve the dispute. The matter was kept today to enable the parties to finalise the Consent terms. Their preliminary understanding was recorded in the order dated 27 April 2017. The learned counsel for the parties state that the parties have executed Consent terms and both the parties are present in the Court and have been explained the Consent terms, who have understood the same and have put their signatures thereof. I have gone through the Consent terms. The parties have worked out certain modalities regarding payment of maintenance and provision for the minor daughter and have agreed to seek divorce by mutual consent. There is nothing unconceivable about the Consent terms. Consent terms are taken on record and marked 'X'. All undertakings are accepted. The learned counsel for the parties agree that the clauses regarding handing over the flat, provision of maintenance and return of original documents, deposit of the amount in the account of the minor and that the Respondent are minor daughter not claiming share in the immovable property, are all essential terms of these Consent terms.

2. Second Appeal is disposed of in terms of the Consent terms. Parties and Registry to take steps to draw a decree accordingly. In view of the disposal of Second Appeal, both the Civil Applications do not survive and are disposed of accordingly.
