PC.

1 Application is listed under the caption of settlement. In fact, the prayer for quashing is made on the basis of settlement between the applicant and the first respondent. Paragraph 2 of the order dated 26th October, 2016 specifically records that prayer for quashing the FIR cannot be considered unless the applicant settles the dispute with all the victims of the offence. However, applicant has not come out with any such settlement. Hence, we dismiss the application.
