CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 1st August 2017

PC:-

1. There is a irregularity in service of the Civil Application for condonation of delay. I will leave that aside since the question is of condoning a delay of 32 days, and condoning delay is a matter between the Applicant and the Court. The delay is sufficiently explained and is condoned.

2. The Civil Application is made absolute and is disposed of.
