CORAM : M. S. SONAK, J.
DATE: 06 MARCH 2017

COMMON ORDER :-

1] Heard learned counsel appearing for applicants / appellants in matters at Sr. nos. 11, 12, 13, 18, 23 and 29. Also heard learned counsel appearing for some of the respondents in the matter at sr. no. 20.

2] In all these matters, the appeals have already been dismissed for non prosecution on various dates between the years 1997 and 2010. The applicants / appellants, have however, filed applications seeking restoration. However, no proper steps have been taken by the applicants/ appellants and therefore, the applications are pending till date.

3] The Registry, has put a noting that most of the case-papers in the appeals have been destroyed by following the Rules. If the applications for restoration are now to be considered, then it is necessary that the applicants / appellants cooperate in the matter of reconstruction of the record, which is again, permissible under the Rules. The Registry has pointed out that from time to time, opportunities were granted to the applicants / appellants to furnish fresh set of papers so as to reconstruct the files. However, since the applicants / appellants have not cooperated or furnished the same, these applications for restoration are pending.

4] In the aforesaid circumstances, six weeks time is granted to all the applicants / appellants to furnish fresh set of appeal papers. The applicants / appellants are further required to take fresh steps in the matter of service of notice upon respondents. In case, the applicants / appellants do not furnish fresh set of case-papers or complete service upon respondents within this stipulated period of six weeks, then, all these civil applications to stand dismissed for non prosecution without any further reference to this court.

5] In the matter at sr. no. 12, learned counsel for the applicant / appellant submits that the applicant / appellant has expired. If this be the position, the legal representatives of the applicant / appellant may make proper application for setting aside abatement within this period of six weeks accompanied by application for condonation of delay. Again, if no steps are taken, within six weeks, applications / appeals to stand dismissed for non prosecution without any further reference to this court.
