REGISTRAR (JUDL-II)

Date : 31/07/2017

Adv. for petitioner present

Present Civil Application is filed for publication of notice to serve the respondent Nos.1 and 2. As per contentions of Appellant, he has filed present appeal against Respondent Nos.1 and 2. Notices are issued which return with report that given address not found. The Appellant has taken every effort to find out their complete address. But Appellant could not find out the same. At admission stage also the respondents served through publication and therefore he prayed for publication of notice. Bailiff report of notice of respondent No.1 shows that he was not found and his address is not known to the neighbour. Bailiff report regarding respondent No.2 also shows that his address is not known.

Considering the bailiff report and prayer of the Appellant, present Civil Application deserves to be allowed. Present Civil Application is allowed. Notice be published as per Prayer Clause A of the said Civil Application.
