IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 4264 OF 2015
IN
FIRST APPEAL (ST) NO. 34579 OF 2015

Prithviraj Sampatrao Chavan	...Appellant
Versus
Pandurang Maruti Shilwant	...Respondent

Mr Pradeep Thorat, for the Appellant/Applicant.
Mr Kuldeep U Nikam, for the Respondent.

CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 27th June 2017

PC:-

1. There is a delay of a year and 42 days in filing the First Appeal. The Civil Application is served. It is opposed. I find from that is stated in the First Appeal that sufficient cause is made out. The Applicant states that time was lost in contacting his Advocate who appeared in the MACT, Karad and collecting papers from him to engage fresh representation. I am satisfied that the delay is not deliberate nor due to negligence. The delay is condoned.

2. The Civil Application is disposed of in these terms. There will be no order as to costs.
