CORAM : SMT. V. K. TAHILRAMANI &
REVATI MOHITE DERE, JJ.
THURSDAY, 5th JANUARY, 2017

ORAL JUDGMENT (Per Smt. V. K. Tahiramani, J.) :

1. Heard both sides.

2. Rule. By consent, rule is made returnable forthwith and the matter is heard finally.

3. By order dated 23rd November, 2016, the petitioner was granted parole by this Court for a period of 30 days on the medical ground of his wife, that is, his wife was required to undergo knee surgery. Pursuant to the said order, the petitioner was released on parole on 5th December, 2016. Now, the petitioner is seeking extension of parole on the ground that he has suffered a heart attack on 15th December, 2016. It is seen that on account of heart attack, he was admitted in J.J. Hospital, Mumbai. The case papers relating to the petitioner show that he has to undergo Coronary Ballon Angioplasty. Hence, on this ground, extension of parole is sought.

4. In view of the above facts, we are inclined to extend the parole for a further period of 30 days.

5. Rule is made absolute in the above terms.
