CORAM: G.S. PATEL, J
DATED: 7th March 2017

PC:-

1. On 29th April 2014, this Court initially restrained the ONGC, the 2nd Respondent, from making any payment to ABB India Ltd. On 9th May 2014 the Court noted that ONGC had filed a Reply claiming that full payment had been made to ABB India Ltd and no further amounts were then payable. This statement was found to be “delightfully vague” and without particulars. ONGC was directed to file a proper Reply. It was restrained from making any further payment to ABB India Ltd in terms of the settlement that was operating and that continues even to this day.

2. On behalf of ABB India Ltd, Mr Wagle says that no amount is due to it from ONGC and that all amounts have been paid. This statement is noted and accepted.
3. There is no point in continuing the previous order. Liberty however to the Petitioners to make an appropriate claim before the learned Arbitrator, if so advised.
4. The Arbitration Petition is disposed of in these terms with no order as to costs.
