

Urmila Ingale

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
WRIT PETITION NO. 1574 OF 2003
(Matter is under search)

Dr.Naveena Rao .. Petitioner
Vs.
University of Mumbai and ors. .. Respondents

Mr.Makrand Kale i/b Mr.M.M.Vashi, for the Petitioner.
None for Respondent.

CORAM : A.A.SAYED AND M.S.KARNIK, JJ.

29th JUNE, 2017

P.C. :

. The prayer in the Petition is for permitting the petitioner to appear for final examination in the subject MCH (Plastic Surgery) which was due to commence on 07/07/2003. By virtue of ad-interim order, the petitioner was permitted for the examination and may have by now completed her course.

2. In the circumstance, the Petition is rendered infructuous and academic. The Petition is disposed as infructuous. Rule is disposed of accordingly. It is clarified that the petitioner's appearance in the examination be treated as regular and on completion of her course no benefits will be denied to her.

3. Learned Counsel for the petitioner states that he will place copy of the Petition on record.

(M.S.KARNIK, J.)

(A.A.SAYED, J.)