

psv

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION
WRIT PETITION NO.198 OF 2017

M/s. Maulesh Builders Pvt. Ltd.	... Petitioner
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra & Ors.	... Respondents

Mr.Salik Khan for the Petitioner.
Mr.Manish Upadhyay, AGP for the Respondent Nos.1 and 3.
Ms.Vandana Mahadik for BMC.

CORAM : A.S. OKA &
SMT. VIBHA KANKANWADI, JJ.

DATE : 20th JULY, 2017

P.C.

1. The learned Counsel appearing for the respondent Nos.1 and 3 states that the impugned letter dated 19th September 2016 has been set aside in appeal and there is an order of remand. We accept the said statement. In view of this statement, nothing survives in this petition.

2. The learned Counsel for the petitioner also accepts that the impugned letter dated 19th September 2016 has been set aside and an order of remand has been made. Hence, nothing survives in the petition and the same is accordingly disposed of.

(SMT. VIBHA KANKANWADI, J)

(A.S. OKA, J)