CORAM : V.M. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED : JULY 5, 2017

Heard Shri S.S.Ghate, learned counsel appearing for the applicant. By the present petition, the present petitioner is seeking quashing of criminal complaint filed on behalf of respondents in the Court of J.M.F.C. Nagpur on the ground that the present petitioner has already filed a proceeding before learned Employees Insurance Court and sought relief of stay of payment of contribution from the Industrial Court.

Shri V.P.Maldhure learned counsel for respondents has pointed out that the notices dated 23/8/2012 and 13/12/2012 which are subject matter of the proceeding before learned Employees Insurance Court in Case No.1/2013 filed after the prosecution against the present applicant was launched.

Further, the act of contravening the provisions of law constitute a different offence as contemplated under Employees State Insurance Act. No other ground was submitted by learned counsel for applicant during the course of hearing. There is no merit in the application. Hence, the application is dismissed.
