This application is preferred to condone the delay of 149 days in filing the restoration application. The second application is for restoration of the appeal, which came to be dismissed for default for not filing of the private paper-book within six months.

It is submitted by learned counsel for appellant that the private paper-book is ready and it was also given to the office. However, as it was given after the period has expired, he is constrained to file this application.

In view of the above, the delay in filing application for restoration of appeal is condoned, the application for restoration of the appeal is allowed subject to condition of the appellant filing of private paper-book within a week.
