V.M. DESHPANDE, JJ.

DATE : 16.01.2017

Shri Agrawal, the learned Counsel holding for Shri Lohiya, the learned Counsel for the petitioner states that he does not have any instructions and this Court may pass appropriate orders in the petition.

By this petition, the petitioner seeks a declaration that the contract and work order authorizing the respondent no.3 to collect the supervision fees is illegal and without jurisdiction.

On a perusal of the writ petition, we find that the impugned agreement was executed for one year. This Court had not granted any interim relief in favour of the petitioner. It is most likely that the cause for filing the writ petition is rendered infructuous due to passage of time. The agreement was only for a period of one year and in the absence of any interim relief, the same must have been executed. Also, there is a subsequent change in the policies.

In the result, we dismiss the writ petition with no order as to costs. Rule stands discharged.
