Shri Firdos Mirza, Advocate for applicants.

CORAM : V.M. DESHPANDE, J.

DATED : SEPTEMBER 8, 2017

The learned counsel for the applicant submits that after filing of the additional chargesheet against the present applicants the learned counsel for the applicant has not availed the opportunity of filing the application for bail before the learned Sessions Court. In that view of the matter, he submits that as the judicial propriety demands he will first approach before the learned Sessions Court.

Permission is granted.

If the application for bail is filed by the applicants within a period of one week from today before the learned Sessions Court, since the bail application is concerned with the personal liberty of a citizen it is expected from the learned Sessions Court which shall be dealing with such application filed on behalf of the present applicants to dispose of as expeditiously as possible and in any case it should be disposed of within a period of three weeks. It is also expected from the prosecuting agency to extend full cooperation to learned Sessions Judge for early disposal.

It is made clear that this Court has not heard the learned counsel for the applicants on merit at all, nor this Court has applied its mind to the merits of the matter.

With these observations the applicants are permitted to withdraw the application as prayed.
