1. The applicant No.1 in Criminal Application (APL) No.606 of 2016 has filed an affidavit stating that the dispute between the parties has been settled. The dispute between the parties is essentially of a civil nature. Relying upon the decision of the Apex Court in the case of Narinder Singh & Ors. v. State of Punjab & Anr., reported in 2014 ALL MR (Cri) 1886 (S.C.), the learned counsels appearing for the applicants in both these applications have urged that the FIR registered in the present matters for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 468 and 506 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code vide Crime No.495/2015 on 18-11-2015 can be quashed and set aside.

2. The learned counsels appearing for the parties, including the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent No.1-State, do not dispute about the settlement arrived at between the parties, and they submit that by consent of the parties, the FIR can be quashed and set aside.

3. In the result, both these criminal applications are allowed. The FIR registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 468 and 506 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code vide Crime No.495/2015 on 18-11-2015, is hereby quashed and set aside.

4. Both these criminal applications stand disposed of accordingly.
