

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY, BENCH AT NAGPUR

MISCELLANEOUS CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 1056 OF 2016

Sau. Arti Jayant Changyaare

..Applicant

Versus

Jayant Chandrakishor Changyaare

..Respondent

Mr U.J. Deshpande, Advocate for applicant

Mr A.M. Tirukh, Advocate for respondent

CORAM : N.W. SAMBRE, J.

DATE : 11th April 2017

PER COURT

Heard.

2. Out of matrimonial discord, Petition No.A-76/2016 came to be preferred before the Family Court, Akola by the non-applicant husband under the provisions of Section 13 (1) (i-a) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for dissolution of marriage.

3. The wife since staying at Yavatmal, sought transfer of the same, as according to her she is not getting maintenance from the non-applicant husband and it is difficult for her to travel to Akola and to defend the said matter.

4. The claim is opposed by the Counsel for respondent-husband on the ground that distance between Yavatmal and Akola is not more than 100 Kms. and the applicant can very much attend the said proceedings.

5. Having considered the submissions and after having perused the record, as is brought before this Court, what could be noticed is admittedly, the applicant-wife is not getting any maintenance from the non-applicant husband.

6. In view thereof, Miscellaneous Civil Application stands allowed in terms of prayer clause (1).
