CORAM : N.W. SAMBRE, J.

DATE : 20th April 2017

PER COURT

1. The respondent objected to the transfer of the proceedings on the ground by relying upon certain case papers, as according to her, the respondent will suffer great hardship, as compared to the applicant in case the proceedings are transferred from Family Court, Bandra to the Family Court, Nagpur.

2. Perused the reply filed. It is not in dispute that respondent-husband is attending the proceedings bearing Petition No.E-328/2014 before Family Court, Nagpur.

3. In view of above undisputed position, Miscellaneous Civil Application stands allowed in terms of prayer clause (a), when the convenience and hardship of wife is required to be given more weightage.
