CORAM : B.R. GAVAI AND A.S. CHANDURKAR, JJ.

DATE : 07th February, 2017

None for the petitioner. Heard Mr. Kadu, learned Addl. Public Prosecutor for the respondents.

By way of present Criminal Writ Petition, the petitioner has prayed for issuance of directions to the respondent no.1 to release him on furlough. The application of petitioner for grant of furlough leave was rejected by the competent authority on the ground of adverse police report and since he was required to be arrested by police and brought back to prison on earlier occasion when he was released on furlough.

A perusal of the reply would reveal that after the petitioner was released on furlough and parole on five occasions, he did not return to the jail on time and on the last occasion, was required to be arrested and brought back to prison. The petitioner had not submitted any documents before the Authority justifying his action of not returning to the prison after period of furlough was over. On the contrary, he was required to be arrested and brought back to the prison.

In view of above, no case is made out for interference. Criminal Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed.
