JUDGMENT

(Judgment of the court was made by HULUVADI G.RAMESH, J.)

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties for some time.

2. The writ appeal is filed by the appellant/writ petitioner challenging the order passed by the learned Single Judge rejecting to interfere with the order transferring the appellant to Chattisgarh, the present writ appeal has been filed.

3. The appellant sought for indulgence with the transfer order on the ground of his ailment. It appears that he has been serving in the present Station from February 2013 and during November 2015, he sustained injury in his left forearm and he underwent some surgeries and plates were inserted in his left forearm and whileso, he was sought to be transferred to Chattisgarh by an order dated 17.2.2016. It further appears that on the strength of the interim order obtained in the writ petition, he has been continuing in the present station itself.

4. The grievance expressed by the appellant is that he is still undergoing treatment and could not undertake heavy work because of his health condition. It is further represented that he has not been paid salary in the meanwhile. It may be that he would be unable to carry out regular work but, having regard to the difficulty pleaded, he may be given some light work according to the disability of the petitioner. However, he is directed to report at the Station where he is now transferred, on or before 1st January 2018. Sofar as non-payment of salary is concerned, it would be taken care of by the authority immediately. The writ appeal is allowed in part to the extent indicated above. No costs. The connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
