(JUDGMENT OF THE COURT WAS MADE BY M.GOVINDARAJ, J.)

Challenging the award of compensation made by the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal (Principal District Judge) Krishnagiri, in MCOP No.1434 of 2006, dated 12.02.2013, the United India Insurance Company Limited has preferred the appeal.

2. The claimants/ respondents 1 to 3 herein, are the legal heirs of the deceased. On 27.06.2006, the husband of the first respondent along with his friends, while returning from Coimbatore to Salem, in a Tata Indica Car, bearing Registration No.TN30-J-4371, at about 24.00 hours, in the midnight, a Tata 407 Tempo, bearing Registration No.TN33-D-9398, belonging to the fourth respondent herein, driven by its driver, in a rash and negligent manner, dashed against the Car, in which the deceased was travelling. A case was registered against the driver of the offending vehicle, in Crime No.411/2006, under Sections 279, 338 and 304-A IPC.

3. At the time of accident, the deceased was 45 years. The first respondent / claimant was 35 years old and second respondent was 16 years old. Third respondent is the mother of the deceased. The claimants have estimated the loss to the tune of Rs.3,25,83,000/- and restricted their claim to Rs.75,00,000/- in the claim petition filed before the Tribunal.

4. The appellant insurance company among other grounds has denied the allegations of negligence and liability.

5. Before the Tribunal, the first respondent / wife has let in evidence as P.W.2. Eye witness Vediappan has let in evidence as P.W.3 and the auditor of the deceased has let in evidence as P.W.4 and 36 documents were marked as Exs.P1 to P36. On the side of the respondents, Inspector of Police was examined as R.W.1 and a rough sketch was marked as Ex.R1.

6. On the basis of evidence of eye witness P.W.3; evidence of P.W.2 / wife; and evidence of R.W.1 - Inspector of Police, the Tribunal has concluded that the driver of the tempo van, bearing Registration No.TN33-D-9398, belonging to the fourth respondent, was rash and negligent in causing the accident. The offending vehicle was covered by insurance policy under the appellant insurance company and therefore, the Tribunal has held that the appellant insurance company is liable to pay the compensation.

7. On the basis of Exs.P3, P9 to P15 and Exs.P31 to 36, the Tribunal has fixed the monthly income of the deceased at Rs.50,000/-. After deducting 1/3rd towards personal and living expenses, the monthly income was arrived at Rs.33,333/-, for calculating the loss of dependency. Since the deceased was 47 years of age at the time of accident, multiplier 13 was applied. Accordingly, a sum of Rs.51,99,948/- was arrived at, as loss of contribution to the family (Rs.33,333/-X12X13). Towards loss of consortium, a sum of Rs.10,000/- was awarded to the first respondent / wife; Rs.10,000/- to the minor towards loss of love and affection; Rs.10,000/- towards funeral expenses; in total a sum of Rs.52,29,948/- was awarded by the Tribunal as compensation.

8. The appellant insurance company has challenged the quantum as excessive, as the same was without any proof of earnings of the deceased. The deceased was a certified Contractor under Electricity Board, Highways and Public Works Department. He was also a partner with the other two persons, who were in the vehicle. The work order awarded by the Electricity Department to the Public Works Department shows that they were actively involved in contract works. Even a worker employed under him will be drawing a salary of Rs.10,000/- per month and hence, the fixation of Rs.50,000/- as monthly income is very nominal and it is supported by the documents filed before the Tribunal and therefore, it does not require any interference.

9. Applying the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in SARLA VERMA (SMT) AND OTHERS VS. DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION AND ANOTHER [2009 (6) SCC 121] multiplier 13 was applied, as the deceased was 45 years old at the time of accident. By applying the multiplier, the loss of compensation is arrived at Rs.51,99,948/- (Rs.33,333/-X12X13 = Rs.51,99,948/-). Under the other heads of loss of consortium, loss of love and affection and funeral expenses, the Tribunal has awarded a very meager amount of Rs.10,000/-, under each head. Since the amount awarded is very meager, we are not inclined to interfere with the same.

10. Accordingly, the award of compensation at Rs.52,29,948/- for the death of the husband of the first respondent / claimant and father of second respondent and son of the third respondent is very reasonable and we are not inclined to interfere with the same.

11. The appellant - insurance company is directed to deposit the entire award amount, with proportionate interest at the rate of 7.5% per annum and costs, from the date of petition, till the date of realization, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, to the credit of MCOP No.1434 of 2006, on the file of Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal [Principal District Court] Krishnagiri.

12. On such deposit being made, the respondents 1 and 3 / claimants are permitted to withdraw their respective shares, on filing proper applications before the Tribunal. The second respondent minor was 16 years old, in the year 2006 and he has attained majority as of now and therefore, he is entitled to withdraw the compensation as apportioned by the Tribunal, on filing proper application before the Tribunal.

13. In the result, the Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
