COMMON ORDER

These criminal original petitions are filed to quash the First Information Report 11 and 12 of 2014 pending on the file of the second respondent.

2. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the first respondent submits that the investigation is almost completed and the investigation reveals, this petitioner along with other accused have cheated several crores of rupees from gullible public aspiring for MBBS seat. Since prima facie evidence available for filing final report, I do not see any reason to entertain these petitions to quash the First Information Reports. Hence, these petitions are dismissed.
