ORDER
(Order of the Court was made by A.SELVAM, J.)

This Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying to call for the records relating to detention order passed in BCDFGISSSV No.1111/2016, dated 26.10.2016, by the detaining authority against the detenu, by name Pavan Roy, aged 25 years, S/o Pacchanroy, Lohana Bathchala Village, Bahirvasthan Police Station, Madhupani District, Bihar State, and quash the same.

2. The Inspector of Police, R1 Mambalam Police Station, as sponsoring authority, has submitted an affidavit to the detaining authority, wherein it is averred to the effect that the detenu has involved in the following adverse cases.

- i. R-1 Mambalam Police Station Cr.No.161 of 2016, registered under Section 380 of the Indian Penal Code.
- ii. R-2 Kodambakkasm Police Station Cr.No.190 of 2016, registered under Sections 457 and 380 of the Indian Penal Code.
- iii. R-2 Kodambakkasm Police Station Cr.No.234 of 2016, registered under Sections 457 and 511 of the Indian Penal Code.
- iv. R-2 Kodambakkasm Police Station Cr.No.291 of 2016, registered under Sections 457 and 380 of the Indian Penal Code.
- v. R-1 Mambalam Police Station Cr.No.496 of 2016, registered under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Further, it is averred in the affidavit that on 28.04.2016, at about 10.30 hrs, one Ashok Dugar, aged 55 years, son of Fathechand, residing at No.30, Thanikachalam Road, T.Nagar, Chennai-17, as defacto complainant, has given a complaint in R-1 Mambalam Police Station against the detenu and others, wherein it is stated that he and his family members have gone to Pondicherry on 29.4.2016 and subsequently received an information to the effect that the house has been looted and due to that a case has been registered in Crime No.546 of 2016 under Section 381 of the Indian Penal Code and ultimately requested the detaining authority to invoke Act 14 of 1982 against the detenu.

4. The detaining authority, after perusing the averments made in the affidavit and other connected documents, has derived subjective satisfaction to the effect that the detenu is a habitual offender and ultimately branded him as a 'Goonda' by way of passing the impugned detention order and in order to quash the same, the present petition has been filed by the detenu himself as petitioner.

5. In the counter filed on the side of the respondents it is averred to the effect that most of the averments made in the petition are false. The sponsoring authority has submitted all the relevant materials to the detaining authority. The detaining authority, after considering all the relevant materials and other connected documents, has derived subjective satisfaction to the effect that the detenu is a habitual offender and ultimately branded him as a 'goonda' by way of passing the impugned detention order and the same does not require any interference and therefore, the present petition deserves to be dismissed.

6. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has raised the following points for quashing the detention order:

<https://hcservices.ecourts.gov.in/hcscases/>

(1) The petitioner/detenu has given a representation and the same has not been disposed of without delay.

(ii)The detenu belongs to Bihar State and he does not know both English and Tamil. But, all the documents are in English and Tamil and the same would cause prejudice to the petitioner/detenu.

7. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents has contended to the effect that the representation submitted on the side of the detenu has been duly disposed of without delay and further, all the copies, which are available in the book-let, are translated to the petitioner/detenu and no prejudice has caused to him and therefore, the contentions urged on the side of the petitioner/detenu is liable to be rejected.

8.On the side of the respondents, a proforma has been submitted, wherein it is clearly stated that in between Column Nos.7 to 9, four clear working days are available and in between Column Nos.12 and 13, four clear working days are available and no explanation has been given on the side of the respondents with regard to such delay.

9.It is seen from the records that all the documents furnished to the petitioner/detenu are only in English as well as in Tamil. The consistent case put forth on the side of the petitioner/detenu is that he hails from Bihar and he does not know both English and Tamil and no attempt has been made to translate all vital documents in the mother tongue of the petitioner/detenu and in fact, the same would affect the rights of the detenu guaranteed under Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India. Therefore viewing from any angle, the detention order passed by the detaining authority is liable to be quashed.

In fine, this Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detention order dated 26.10.2016, passed in BCDFGISSSV No.1111/2016, by the detaining authority against the detenu, by name Pavan Roy, aged 25 years, S/o Pacchanroy, residing at Lohana Bathchala Village, Bahirvasthan Police Station, Madhupani District, Bihar State, is quashed and the respondents are directed to set him at liberty forthwith, unless he is required to be incarcerated in connection with some other case.
