service of the petitioner in terms of certain Government Orders issued on the subject matter.

2. In pursuance of the direction, an order was passed on 24.01.2014, stating that the petitioner's service cannot be regularized. Some reasons have been spelt out in the order as to why the service cannot be regularized.

3. The learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondent would submit that as against the order, the writ petitioner has approached this Court by filing another writ petition challenging the rejection order. That being the case, the present writ petition cannot be maintained. Therefore, the contempt petition is dismissed.
