V.PARTHIBAN,J.

Seeking leave to institute the suit against the respondent/defendant, the applicant/plaintiff has come up with this application.

2.Applicant is the plaintiff in the suit filed for damages. Learned counsel appearing for the applicant submits that since the suit is for damages, there is no property involved for the purpose of jurisdiction. Leave has been sought for on the ground that the respondent is residing outside the territorial jurisdiction of this Court.

3.Considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the applicant and the averments made in the plaint, leave is granted.
