COMMON ORDER

In all these writ petitions, the petitioners seek for issuance of a Writ of Mandamus directing the respondents to issue them new family card pursuant to the applications submitted by them in this behalf and by considering the representations submitted by them on various dates.

2. When the writ petitions were taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents brought to the notice of this Court a communication dated Nil.02.2017 sent by the second respondent in all the three writ petitions. As per the communication of the second respondent, the applications submitted by the respective petitioners are being processed and their claim will be considered in accordance with the instructions received by the Government from time to time and after scrutinising the documentary evidence submitted by the petitioners, including the Aadhar card and documents evidencing their place of residence. Based on the above communications, the learned Government Advocate would submit that the claim of the petitioners for issuing new Family Card is under consideration of the second respondent and the claim of the petitioners will be considered in accordance with law. The said submission of the learned Government Advocate is recorded.

3. In the light of the above submissions made by the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents, this Court is of the view that no further order is required to be passed in these writ petitions.

4. Accordingly, all the writ petitions are closed. No costs.
