The Grievances of the writ petitioners are that their date of appointment has been erroneously recorded in their service records as 21.07.1990 instead of 20.07.1990. There is a short fall of one day in respect of joining of the writ petitioners in duty.

2. The learned Government advocate appearing for the respondents now brought to the notice of this Court that the writ petitioners' date of joining was entered as 21.07.1990 as per the records available on file. However, the writ petitioners have not produced any incriminating evidence to show that they have joined duty on 20.07.1990. In the absence of any such evidence, this Court is not inclined to consider the claim of the date of joining of the petitioners.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioners relying on the order of appointment states that the same was issued on 20.07.1990. The order of appointment is unconnected with the date of joining duty as per the respondents and as per the records available in the office of the respondents, the writ petitioners have joined duty on 21.07.1990 and therefore, no further adjudication is required in this writ petition.

4. Accordingly, the Writ Petition stands dismissed. However there is no order as to costs.
